AUSTRALIAN MAILS.
A dispatch from London, dated, October 24th says: The Canadian Government is willing to grant a subsidy of £25,000 for a fortnightly Australian mail service, and £15,000 for a monthly one. Mr. Raikes, Postmaster-General, has expressed himself favorable to the delivery of mails at Vancouver instead of at San Francisco.

THE PROPOSED PACIFIC CABLE.
Sir Julius Vogel was interviewed in London, October 27th, by a representative of the Sydney Telegraph in regard to the Pacific Cable, with the following result: Sir Julius is unfavorable to the constructing of a cable from Vancouver to the colonies, when a much shorter route could be obtained from a point south of San Francisco.
To talk of carrying the line through British territory solely was absurd, and would offer special inducement for a hostile power to cut it in time of war. He doubts whether capitalists could be found to carry out the project, and believes his own scheme would recommend itself in preference.

Reports credit Sir Julius with having under way a huge financial scheme for purchasing the present cable to Australia, and constructing one from America.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING.
The following account of the marriage of Mr. Hatch to Miss Hawes, is from the San Francisco "Alta":
The residence of Col. and Mrs. A.
G. Hawes was the scene of a lovely wedding last Wednesday evening, the contracting parties being Miss Alice Hawes and Frank M. Hatch of Honolulu. The residence was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns by Miss Mary Bates. The wedding bower was of course in the bay window of the drawing room, where a pretty background was formed of clusters of yellow chryssanthemums and ferns laid against the curtains. Overhead were three large wreaths of yellow and russetcolored chrysanthemums suspended by loops and streamers of narrow gold and red colored silk. The wooden mantel at the side was set with tall sprays of ferns and masses of chrysanthemums, fringed with umbrella grass and encompassed by bunches of yellow silk. In addition to all of this were numerous handsome baskets of roses and other flowers which had been sent as gifts from friends.

At 8:30 o'clock the parlors were filled with guests, and as the orchestra played the wedding march the bridal party appeared. Mr.
James D. Phelps and Mr. Harry Durbrow held back the silken ribbons, making an avenue through which they walked.
Miss Marie Josselyn and Master Alexander G. Hawes, Jr., led the way, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Jessie Kaufmann, and the bride who was escorted by her father. The groom and his best man Mr. Chas. Deering, of Honolulu, had preceded them with the minister, Rev. Hiram W. Beers, of Trinity Church. The ceremony was very impressive, and was followed by the sincere congratulations of all present. The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing and the enjoyment of an elaborate supper. The happy couple were well remembered in the way of presents, all of which were elegant and costly.
Mr. and Mrs. Hatch have gone to Europe to travel until next June, when they will go to Honolulu to reside permanently.
The bride looked lovely in a beautiful tulle of white brocade sarah, made with a long court train and trimmed elaborately with cascades of point lace. A filmy veil of white tulle fell to the end of the train from the coiffure, and was confined in place by an elegant diamond star. At her corsage was a diamond pin, and she carried a hand bouquet of Niphetos roses.
